OCEAN CITY SPRINGFEST

May 8, 2010

Ocean City, MD welcomes you for a Saturday of fun during the popular family festival called "Springfest." Big-top tents enclose colorful arts and crafts as well as a feast of food. Entertainers perform on two festival stages. The famous 3-mile Boardwalk lures fun seekers, and a 10-mile stretch of white sand invites strollers. For spirited shopping and entertainment—or just to relax by the sea—join us for Springfest!

Arrive in Ocean City, Maryland around 10:30 AM for a splendid Saturday during the annual Springfest celebration! At the Springfest site, four giant tents enclose a vast array of arts and crafts and a feast of food (such as crab cakes, pit beef, barbecue, hamburgers, hot dogs, ethnic foods, and tempting desserts). Two festival stages present free entertainment. Nearby stretches the famous

3-mile-long Ocean City Boardwalk with its carnival of delights, including shops, eateries, and amusements. You can walk the boards to find the fun or pay to ride the Boardwalk Tram. (Public transportation, including a trolley, lets you explore other areas of Ocean City.) A beautiful white sand beach, which runs for ten miles along the blue ocean, invites your strolling. You will probably give in to tasty temptations many times during the day, but be sure to eat before we depart at 5:30 PM because we make only a rest stop on the way home. After a relaxing day in the "East Coast's Number One Family Resort," return refreshed, with expected arrival in York 10:00 PM, Red Lion 10:30 PM.
