Going strong for 80 years, this incredible bazaar in the middle of New Jersey is the ultimate shopper's delight!

Head to the heart of New Jersey to experience the incredible Englishtown Auction Sales, a vast and bustling indoor and outdoor marketplace that was started by the Sobechko family back in 1929. You name it, they have it, including antiques and collectibles, clothing for the entire family, electronics, fashion accessories, automotive supplies, hardware, health and beauty supplies, home furnishings and gifts, jewelry, outerwear, pet supplies, plants for the home and garden, toys, specialty food items, and produce. Stroll amidst countless vendors outdoors spread over 40 acres, or head inside five buildings that are home to more than 300 vendors. (Take advantage of discount coupons you will be provided.) It's capitalism at its most colorful! When you get hungry, indulge in a variety of culinary treats at indoor food stands and roving carts or two outdoor food courts. We'll arrive around 10:00 AM in Englishtown, and depart from this unique spectacle with our haul of bargains at 4:00 PM. Expected arrival in Lancaster is 7:15 PM, York 8:00 PM, Red Lion 8:30 PM.
