May 20, 2010

For a delightful day in New York City, begin at the Intrepid Sea, Air & Space Museum at Pier 86 on the Hudson. Then delight in a Circle Line cruise down the Hudson and up the East River, with great views of the city skyline and Lady Liberty. It's a majestic day in mighty Manhattan!

Arriving in Manhattan around 11:30 AM, head to Pier 86 on the Hudson River, where the mighty USS Intrepid is berthed. Explore this storied aircraft carrier, which had dramatic adventures in the Pacific in World War II (including several kamikaze strikes), served as a recovery vessel for two space missions, did three tours of duty in the Vietnam War, monitored Soviet subs, and even served in retirement as temporary FBI headquarters in the aftermath of 9/11. Splendid exhibits and films aboard ship will let you experience the daily life of the 3,000 sailors, aviators, and marines carried by this vessel. Check out an incredible collection of 30 aircraft, including the A-12 Blackbird spy plane and the luxury Concorde airliner, and see the Growler, an early nuclear missile sub. For lunch, visit the Au Bon Pain Café in the Welcome Center, buy light snacks on the Mess Deck, or stop by a vendor on
