MOHEGAN SUN AT POCONO DOWNS

June 24, 2010

Mohegan Sun at Pocono Downs, Pennsylvania's first slots casino, reopened in a magnificent facility renovated at a cost of more than $200 million. Enjoy dramatic architecture, new amenities, greatly expanded gaming, and generous comps. Start the summer with a hot streak at Pocono Downs!

Head north to Wilkes-Barre to join the fun at Mohegan Sun at Pocono Downs. This sparkling casino was renovated at a cost of more than $200 million, and now features dramatic architecture and expanded gaming, including 2,500 slots utilizing the new coinless ticket in/ticket out technology. (Denominations range from a penny to a hundred dollars.) Enjoy a wide variety of exciting games from Wheel of Fortune, Triple Red Hot 7's, Monopoly, Deal or No Deal and Hot Shot Progressives to Wizard of Oz and Dean Martin slots. You can also try your luck at video poker in all the popular variations and at electronic blackjack and roulette. Sunburst Lounge, an elevated bar in the center of the circular casino, boasts dozens of multi-game machines. The new casino has high ceilings, state-of-the-art air circulation, and distinct gaming sections for smokers and non-smokers. For intriguing shopping, browse upscale retailers. When you get hungry, enjoy fine restaurants and a Sky Food Court offering quick-serve choices. We have arranged for comps of a $10 food coupon (or a free lunch buffet) and $20 in free play to get you off to a good start. Head home happy after lively fun at Pocono Downs, with expected arrival in New Cumberland at 6:20 PM, York 7:00 PM, Red Lion 7:30 PM.
