LOTIONS AND POTIONS

July 16, 2010

Soothe your worries away with a delightful day in the Susquehanna Valley! Discover lotions at a soap company in Mifflinburg, and learn about herbal infusions at the Country Farm & Home Store. Then feast at Victoria House Restaurant in Lewisburg, with fine food featuring herbs. Mint and lime are put to good use in a cocktail at the Shade Mountain Winery, where you will enjoy a tour and tasting. It's a very comforting tour!

Heading north for relaxation in the Susquehanna Valley, stop first in quaint Mifflinburg at the delightful little Pompeii Street Soap Co. Browse bath and body products, including lotions and "gourmet soaps," enjoy a soap-making demo, and receive a gift of espresso truffle soap. Nearby, visit the Country Farm & Home garden store, where you will hear a talk about herbs and how to brew herbal infusions, and receive a packet of herb seeds. Continuing to pretty Lewisburg on the West Branch of the Susquehanna, enjoy a wonderful lunch at the Victoria House Restaurant, a 19th century showplace. Herbs will be featured in each course, including Lavender Chicken as the entrée. After lunch, head to Middleburg to tour the Shade Mountain Winery. A tasting will include a wine mojito cocktail, featuring mint and lime. (You'll get the recipe and a split of mint wine to take home.) Return home in a mellow mood, with expected arrival in New Cumberland at 5:35 PM, York 6:15 PM, Red Lion 6:45 PM. (lunch)
