NEW YANKEE STADIUM TOUR

August 1, 2010

Tour the new home of the legendary Yankees, reigning World Champions of Major League Baseball! Explore one of the most expensive stadiums ever built, visit the Yankees Museum, see monuments dedicated to immortals like Babe Ruth, Lou Gehrig, and Mickey Mantle, check out the clubhouse and batting cage, and enjoy lunch at the stadium's Hard Rock Café. It's a fun day in the home of the Bronx Bombers!

Heading to the new home of the New York Yankees in the Bronx, enjoy a brief tour of Midtown Manhattan along the way if time permits. Arriving at the new Yankee Stadium, enter the Hard Rock Café to enjoy the "Classic Rock" lunch. Check out music memorabilia lining the walls and the dozen huge TV's that keep patrons in touch with the action on game days. After lunch, part of our group will begin the stadium tour, which lasts 45 minutes to an hour. The rest of the group will have some free time to explore retail offerings, including a great selection of Yankees merchandise, before beginning the tour. (The group that starts touring sooner will have time for shopping later.)

During your tour, visit the Yankees Museum, where artifacts and memorabilia tell the story of baseball and the Yankees franchise, and see Monument Park beyond centerfield, where commemorative plaques, retired numbers, and monuments are preserved after their transport from the old stadium. Babe Ruth, Lou Gehrig, Mickey Mantle, Joe DiMaggio, and manager Miller Huggins are the five legends honored here with monuments. Also visit the clubhouse and batting cage areas unless unavailable. (Since the Yankees are playing away today, we expect these areas to be part of the tour, but the stadium management reserves the right to close any area of the tour.) As you explore the stadium, built at the cost of $1.5 billion, note how similar the playing dimensions are to the old stadium, including a short porch in right field friendly to left-handed power hitters (as the old stadium was friendly to the Babe). Return home after your lively immersion in Yankees glory, with expected arrival in Lancaster at 8:15 PM, York 9:00 PM, Red Lion 9:30 PM.
