CRIME, PUNISHMENT, AND SPIES – OH MY!

August 15, 2010

Apprehend criminals and pretend you're a secret agent at two intriguing museums in downtown DC! The National Museum of Crime and Punishment and the International Spy Museum both provide fascinating views of shadowy worlds. Join us for educational fun in the heart of Washington!

Motoring to downtown DC to explore marvelous museums of crime and espionage, head first to the National Crime and Punishment Museum. This major attraction opened in partnership with John Walsh, who often broadcasts his "America's Most Wanted" show from here. Explore criminology in interactive exhibits and simulators, including high-speed chases, a shooting range, and an entire level devoted to crime scene investigation. Learn about law enforcement legends and view the scary gallery of punishment. Visit the TV studio used by John Walsh and a team of operators fielding calls to the program's hotline, learn about Walsh's personal tragedy,
