During this delightful day in Manhattan, head first to the famous Madame Tussauds waxworks museum, make the most of free time in the lively Times Square area, and board a Circle Line ship at Pier 83 for a terrific two-hour narrated cruise. It's big fun in the big city!

Looking forward to a lively day in New York City, arrive around 10:30 AM in the heart of Times Square, where we enter the famous Madame Tussauds. Here you will meet many of the world's most famous people–er, wax figures. Say howdy to figures of celebrities, sports stars, politicians, and historical legends. In the museum's Sports Zone, enjoy interactive fun with sports figures. Go Behind the Scenes to learn 200-year-old trade secrets of waxworking. In the SCREAM exhibit, guess which scary figure is real before he jumps out at you! Excitement continues in the real world as you explore the revitalized Times Square area on your own, enjoying lunch in this world-famous locale. Later in the afternoon, we motor to Pier 83 to embark on a delightful 2-hour cruise down the Hudson, around the Battery, and up the East River to the United Nations, and back.
