

VERMONT SUMMER ESCAPE

August 26-29, 2010

During this refreshing tour to beautiful Vermont, stay at the hospitable Horizon Inn. Witness a demonstration of majestic Friesians at a horse farm, explore legendary Vermont Country Store, have fun at Adams Farm, cruise on the scenic Connecticut River, visit the famous Yankee Candle Company flagship store, and delight in beauty everywhere. You'll be green with envy if you miss this terrific tour to the Green Mountain State!

DAY 1 En route to our inn in the beautiful Green Mountains of Vermont, stop at the Apple Barn Country Store & Bakery in Bennington to tour their orchard and country store. Arriving at the Horizon Inn (802-464-2131), our delightful accommodations in Wilmington, Vermont near Mount Snow, enjoy a friendly welcome and a wine and cheese reception. Dinner will be served in the inn's Norman Rockwell Dining Room, with musical entertainment following in the Heritage Lounge. (dinner)

Pretty sights around every turn

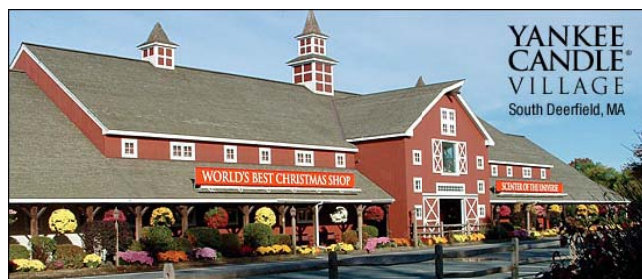

DAY 2: After breakfast, experience Vermont farm life at Adams Farm, a fun attraction featured on many TV shows. Your visit will include a wagon ride, weather permitting. After lunch back at the inn, travel to Hogback Mountain to enjoy the "hundred-mile view" and a country store. Then embark on a scenic cruise on the Connecticut River aboard the Quinnetukut II. After a day of scenic beauty, return to the inn to enjoy dinner in the Norman Rockwell Dining Room and musical entertainment in the lounge. (breakfast, lunch, dinner)

DAY 3: After breakfast, head to historic Weston to shop at the legendary Vermont Country Store, which is crammed with hard-to-find practical merchandise, antiques, and intriguing oddities. Next stop at Scott Covered Bridge, the longest in Vermont, then head to the Friesians of Majesty Horse Farm. Tour the stable to see the magnificent animals, enjoy a carriage ride, have lunch, and witness a wonderful demonstration of horses. Dine back at the inn, and expect a little magic in the lounge. (breakfast, lunch, dinner)
