A DAY OF WINE & ROSES

September 9, 2010

Spend a beautiful day in Maryland's Harford County, beginning at famous Ladew Gardens. Explore many different gardens in seasonal bloom, wonder at amazing topiary, and tour the historic manor with its English antiques, equestrian decorations, and beautiful library. After lunch at Torino's in Bel Air, enjoy a tour and tasting at the award-winning Fiore winery in its picturesque setting. It's a delightful day!

Heading south to Maryland's Harford County, meet our guide, who will acquaint us with the history of this pretty region. Travel through scenic horse country to reach Ladew Topiary Garden, called "the most outstanding topiary garden in America" by the Garden Club of America. Harvey Ladew, who purchased the estate in 1929, created magnificent gardens designed to provide an array of colors and textures in every season. Explore twelve individual gardens abloom with roses and many other flowers, interlaced with stunning topiary, both classical and whimsical. A self-guided walking trail winds for 1½ miles through the gardens, with educational stations and benches for resting and contemplating nature along the way. Also tour the historic manor house, which Ladew filled with English antiques, paintings, photographs, sketches and fox hunting memorabilia. Check out the Oval Library, considered one of the most beautiful rooms in America. Leaving the lovely estate, visit nearby Bel Air for a casual lunch at Torino's. Then head through the countryside to Fiore's, a highly respected winery making wines in traditional Italian style, with a unique Maryland character. Delight in a picturesque agricultural panorama, enjoy a tour of the winemaking process, sample the product, and receive a keepsake tasting glass. Return home happy after a day of wine and roses in pretty Harford County, with expected arrival in York at 5:00 PM, Red Lion 5:30 PM.
