

LAKE PLACID ADIRONDACK ADVENTURE

September 13-16, 2010

Stay three nights in beautiful Lake Placid, NY, and discover the charm of the Adirondack village that has hosted two Olympics. Cruise on serene Lake Placid, tour Olympic arenas, ride to the top of the Ski Jump for a breathtaking view, visit the Robert Louis Stevenson Cottage, and delight in the scenery of the High Falls Gorge. It's a truly refreshing journey!

DAY 1: Heading for fun and beauty amidst magical lakes and mountains in upstate New York, arrive in pretty Lake Placid, home of the Winter Olympics in 1932 and 1980. Check into the Courtyard by Marriott (518-523-2900), our home for three nights, and dine not far away at Lisa G's, a local favorite.

(dinner)

DAY 2: After enjoying breakfast at the hotel, cruise on Lake Placid aboard a new pontoon boat, exploring the splendid lake in its magnificent mountain setting and seeing rich homes along the shore. Back on land, head to Saranac Lake to tour the Robert Louis Stevenson Cottage, where the author of "Treasure Island" once lived, and have lunch at the Stevenson Tea Room, a shrine to the writer's memory. Motoring to Tupper Lake, visit the Wild Center, where the historical and cultural resources of the Adirondacks are celebrated with interactive media, a giant glacier wall, an indoor river, and live animals. Stop for dinner on your own en route back to our hotel.

(breakfast, lunch)

DAY 3: After breakfast, tour the Olympic Ski Jump Complex, learn about the training of future Olympians, and ride an elevator to the top of the 120-meter ski jump tower for a breathtaking view. Also see the arenas where Eric Heiden skated for five gold medals and the American hockey team scored their famous victory over an "unbeatable" Russian team. Have lunch on your own in the village and do a little shopping before visiting Wilmington to discover the High Falls Gorge, with its billion-year-old geology, 700-foot Falls, suspension bridges, and primeval forest. Dine in Wilmington's Hungry Trout Restaurant, enjoying good food in an enchanting setting.
