FRUITS FROM THE FIELD

October 6, 2010

To experience the beauty and bounty of Pennsylvania farmland, begin at Hollabaugh Farms in Biglerville. Ride a wagon into the apple orchards and shop at the market. Enjoy lunch at Hickory Bridge Farm Restaurant, then tour Adams County Winery at South Mountain and taste the wine. Finish up in the Round Barn at Knouse Fruitlands, surrounded by farm products. Mother Earth recommends this terrific tour!

Head west to Biglerville to begin a delightful day amidst the beauties of nature at Hollabaugh Fruit Farm. Enjoy a thorough tour of this bustling family operation, including a wagon ride into the orchards and a chance to pick apples. You'll get a great look at what it means to be a fruit grower in the 21st century! Also shop in the Hollabaugh Market, with its produce, baked goods, gourmet food items, country gift shop, and educational bee room. Next, relax over a bountiful lunch served family-style in a beautiful barn decorated with antiques at Hickory Bridge Farm Restaurant in Orrtanna. Then visit Adams County Winery, housed in a historic Pennsylvania bank barn surrounded by lush gardens and vineyards meandering up South Mountain. Enjoy a tour and tasting at the winery, which produces 30,000 gallons a year from seven varieties of grapes. Finally, go inside the distinctive Round Barn at Knouse Fruitlands, where the bounty of local farms fills the shelves, along with farm-themed retail items. Return home satisfied by this special celebration of nature, with expected arrival in York at 6:30 PM, Red Lion 7:00 PM.
