FALL MYSTERY TOUR

October 7, 2010

Discover diverse delights during this autumn outing! We don't reveal the secrets of our popular mystery tours, but during this intriguing jaunt you will enter a French chateau in a little town on a famous river, enjoy lunch and shopping in a country setting, delve into local lore, and relive American memories. It's a pretty day of happy surprises!

We never provide details about our popular Mystery Tours, but we can't help giving a few hints about the happy surprises awaiting you today! Enjoy a scenic journey to a rustic town on a famous river. Be welcomed to a French chateau that is now a National Historic Site. You'll be following in the footsteps of many a politician and environmentalist! In a pleasant country setting, enjoy lunch and shop in colorful stores in old cabins. Evoke memories of America ranging from an innocent one-room schoolhouse to a flag bloodied by a slain President. Delve into local lore, including an exhibit about a local resident whom Bertrand Russell called "certainly the greatest American thinker ever." It's an intriguing tour! Return home after a delightful day, with expected arrival in New Cumberland at 8:20 PM, York 9:00 PM, Red Lion 9:30 PM.
