MOUNT VERNON CRUISE

October 9, 2010

Enjoy a fascinating day with a Founding Father! Board the spectacular Spirit of Mount Vernon in Washington to cruise down the Potomac to Mount Vernon, George Washington's riverside estate. Explore the famous home, gardens, outbuildings, working farm, and major new museums. Return home after this beautiful excursion with a deeper appreciation of our nation's "Indispensable Man."

Motor to Pier Four in downtown DC to board the Spirit of Mount Vernon. This beautiful cruise ship will carry you in style down the historic Potomac River to Mount Vernon, George Washington's riverfront estate. Enjoy a narrated tour during the lovely 90-minute cruise. Coming ashore at Mount Vernon, enjoy five wonderful hours at the estate that George and Martha Washington called home from the time of their marriage in 1755 to his death in 1799. You will be following in the footsteps of nearly 80 million visitors who have toured the home of "The Indispensable Man." Along with the mansion, you can tour more than a dozen outbuildings, including slave quarters, kitchen, stables, gardens, greenhouse, and a four-acre working farm. You can also visit the George Washington Museum and the Archaeology Museum. Recently opened are two magnificent additions worthy of the first President: the Ford Orientation Center, which emphasizes Washington's dynamic character, and the Reynolds Museum, whose 23 galleries and theaters present the story of Washington's entire life. Depart on our motorcoach at 5:00 PM to head home happy after a fascinating day with a Founding Father. Expected arrival in Hunt Valley is 6:20 PM, Shrewsbury 6:40 PM, York 7:00 PM, Red Lion 7:30 PM.
