NEW YORK CITY GOURMET SHOPPING TOUR

October 16, 2010

An irresistible treat for foodies, this special tour lets you sample Manhattan's fine food stores. Discover tasty treats from around the world at Dean & Deluca, savor the bakery at famous Ferrara in Little Italy, and visit many colorful food shops on Bleecker Street. You will delight in your day as a galloping gourmet!

Head to Manhattan for food fun, and take along a cooler to bring home the irresistible treats you purchase! (We can store your cooler in our luggage compartment.) Arrive around 10:45 AM at Dean & Deluca, the gourmet food showplace that has expanded mightily since it opened its flagship store in SoHo in 1977. After browsing the store's abundance of foods from around the world, depart around noon for Little Italy to enjoy lunch on your own and visit Ferrara, the landmark bakery and café where you will delight in the Old World atmosphere, wonderful aromas, continental coffees, Italian pastries, cookies, and cheesecakes. Next head to the West Village where you will have about two hours to explore the amazing array of food stores along Bleecker Street. Delight in Murray's Cheese Shop, a famously chaotic store where cheeses from around the world cram the shelves (and fill subterranean food caves). Visit Magnolia Bakery, a popular purveyor of cupcakes (and a hangout for characters in "Sex in the City"). Check out John's Pizza, a setting for Woody Allen's "Manhattan," and Rocco's Pastry Shop, a major threat to the waistline and creator of unforgettable cannoli. For a great variety of fish, visit the popular seafood café called Fish (which also sells fresh fish on ice). For your fix of fine Italian gelato, stop at Cones, opened by two brothers a decade ago. Depart the city at 5:00 PM, bringing home memories to savor and treats in the cooler for family and friends to enjoy. Expected arrival in Lancaster is 8:45 PM, York 9:30 PM, Red Lion 10:00 PM.

DEAN & DELUCA

PURVEYORS OF FINE FOOD, WINE & KITCHENWARE
