For a great Saturday in Baltimore—and an early start to Halloween—combine an afternoon at the colorful Inner Harbor with an evening GhostWalk nearby in charming Fell's Point. It's ghostly fun you won't forget!

Arrive around 2:00 PM at the Inner Harbor, Baltimore's great waterfront showplace. You will have about three hours to explore the shops and attractions of this charming area and to enjoy an early dinner on your own in one of the many interesting restaurants. Attractions near the Inner Harbor include two glass-enclosed pavilions featuring shops and eateries, a grand shopping Gallery, the Maryland Science Center with its IMAX film theater, the National Aquarium, the World Trade Center, and the Port Discovery Children's Museum. The famous Phillips Seafood Restaurant is just one of very many choices for your early dinner. At 5:00 PM, we head to Fells Point, the historic waterfront community nearby, to enjoy the Original Fell's Point GhostWalk, an award-winning walking tour owned by Amy Lynwalder and Melissa Rowell, the authors of "Baltimore's Harbor Haunts: True Ghost Stories." Follow our guide on a unique stroll that lasts approximately one hour, covers less than a mile, and stops frequently in front of haunted sites. Return home after ghostly fun, with expected arrival in Hunt Valley at 7:50 PM, Shrewsbury 8:10 PM, York is 8:30 PM, Red Lion 9:00 PM.
