WASHINGTON – MADAME TUSSAUDS & SMITHSONIAN

October 24, 2010

Come with us to DC to enjoy free time on the National Mall to explore awesome attractions like the Air and Space Museum and the National Gallery of Art. Then visit Madame Tussauds to say howdy to some of the world's most famous figures. It's a memorable Sunday in the nation's capital!

Arriving around 10:00 AM on the National Mall in Washington, DC, enjoy about four hours among the mighty museums of the Smithsonian Institution, including the popular Air and Space Museum, the Museum of the American Indian, the Sackler Gallery, the Arts & Industries Building, the Freer Gallery of Art, the Hirshhorn Museum and Sculpture Gardens, the Natural History Museum (see the new Ocean Hall), and the American History Museum (reopened after a massive renovation). The wondrous National Gallery of Art, with its priceless collection of world masterpieces, also awaits your visit. Lunch on your own is available in many museums; for something different, you may want to sample Native American foods in the Museum of the American Indian. At 2:00 PM depart the dazzling delights on the Mall to have fun nearby at Madame Tussauds, the DC branch of the world-famous waxworks attraction. Touch, see, and hear major historical figures, cultural icons, sports legends, and entertainment personalities. Take a picture in the Oval Office set, stand face to face with Ronald Reagan or John Kennedy, or meet the First Couple – lifelike figures of Barack and Michelle Obama. Just don't expect Brad Pitt or Jennifer Lopez to come along when we leave at 4:30 PM to return home after a fun Sunday in the nation's capital. Expected arrival in Hunt Valley at 6:50 PM, Shrewsbury 7:10 PM, York 7:30 PM, and Red Lion 8:00 PM.
