HAUNTED HAVRE DE GRACE

October 30, 2010

For great Halloween fun, come with us to Havre de Grace, Maryland, where the Susquehanna meets the Chesapeake. Enjoy free time to stroll and shop in the historic district, dine at the Tidewater Grille on the river, then walk with our guide to discover the town's haunted sites. It's a delightfully scary and scenic Saturday!

Enjoy a very special Halloween eve in Havre de Grace, where the Susquehanna meets the Chesapeake. Start with free time for strolling and shopping in the charming downtown, which is home to antique shops, gift stores, and art galleries. In the evening, head to the Tidewater Grille to relax on the bank of the Susquehanna River as you enjoy the Skiff Buffet. After dinner, walk with our guide through the historic downtown district as you delight in the Haunted History Ghost Tour. Stop at various homes and sites to hear stories from history and tales of murder, as documented by newspapers or local historians. Also learn of ghosts and hauntings claimed by locals or reported by psychics called to the scene. You are sure to be looking over your shoulder as you proceed with this delightfully scary stroll, which lasts 90 minutes and covers about a mile-and-a-half. Return home safe and sound after memorable Halloween fun in a scenic setting, with expected arrival in Red Lion 11:00 PM, York 11:30 PM.
