THE COUNTRY GOSPEL & CHRISTMAS SHOW AT THE PENNSYLVANIA OPRY

November 17, 2010

Experience a delightful Country Christmas Show at the Pennsylvania Opry in the historic little town of Mercersburg. With a bountiful lunch and a tour of the town included, you'll have foot-stompin' holiday fun!

Headed for toe-tappin' fun, travel west toward Mercersburg, stopping at the Mountain Gate Restaurant in Waynesboro to enjoy one of Central PA's best luncheon buffets. After lunch, enjoy the 2:00 PM show at the Star Theatre in Mercersburg. Built as an opera house in 1911 and restored in Art Deco style in the 1930s, the little theater now overflows with the joyous sounds of the Pennsylvania Opry. Today we delight in the Country Gospel and Christmas Show, which celebrates old-time gospel music as well as the joyful sounds of Christmas. It's a spirited performance that will get you involved in toe-tappin' holiday fun! After this lively entertainment, relax on a guided motorcoach tour of Mercersburg. Learn the story of the town, where future President James Buchanan grew up, where the Confederates staged a famous raid in the Civil War, and where a young Mercersburg Academy student named Jimmy Stewart gave his first acting performance. Return home after fun in Mercersburg in a happy holiday mood, with expected arrival in New Cumberland at 8:20 PM, York 9:00 PM, Red Lion 9:30 PM. (lunch)
